

GAULT ORIGINAL

MINIATURE ARCHITECTURE IN CERAMIC

Gault Original

Gault Original are miniature ceramic houses made in France starting in the early 1980's. Jean-Pierre Gault is the artist who started it all and became a successful business through the investment and leadership of his brother Dominique. Collectors from around the world cherish the Gault Original houses.

Did You Know?

Shipping Gault Original houses can be risky to ship without the original padded box. Wrapping them in bubble wrap rolls typically is a safe method.

Focus on Alsace Houses

It's not uncommon for people to know where the region of Alsace is. Alsace is a region in Northeastern France that borders Switzerland and Germany. In fact, it is so close to Germany that you can travel by tram from the regional capital Strasbourg, to Kehl, the nearest German city, in just 15 minutes.

Jean-Pierre Gault decide to add Alsace as a series for Gault Original houses based on the charm and architecture of the houses in that region.

Alsace Architecture

Alsace house types and the materials used can be categorized in the wide German «pan de bois» (half-timbering) architectural family. This architectural family uses many local symbols and decorations. These symbols appear on porches, doors and on the pieces of wood used to make the half-timbered walls.
